Neighbor to Neighbor is collecting 150 (3-ring) binders for its school supply program. The support we have given in the past has enabled the agency to provide school supplies for more than 600 underprivileged children in our community, from kindergarten through the 12th grade. Please bring binders or donations toward their purchase to the church by Aug. 1.

An Education for Ministry (EFM) training will be conducted in September by George Talbot, a trained moderator. If you are interested call 535-6801. For more info go to www.sewanee.edu, click on School of Theology and then Education for Ministry.

“Put a Foot in Haiti” — A project is under way to help rebuild an Episcopal parish school in Haiti that was destroyed in the January 2010 earthquake. First Presbyterian Church of Pine Bluff is coordinating this effort locally by pledging to rebuild 1,000 square feet of the St. Matthias parish school in the village of Cherident. We invite participation by all those who are interested. For details please contact Pauline Cherry at 534-7831.
