A contemplative prayer group meets in the chapel on Tuesdays at 4:30 p.m. Contemplative prayer is a silent form of communion with God. It deepens our connection with God and, in a prayer group prayer setting, with each other, and helps us understand more deeply creation's rooting in God and our connection to God. Please call Kristofer Upjohn at 575-2738 for more information.

Please join up on Wednesdays during Lent (and hopefully continuing after that) for a DVD lecture series on the New Testament, presented by Dr. Bart Ehrman of the University of North Carolina. The series is an "academic" approach to the New Testament and consists of 24 lectures and a handout is provided. We begin with Holy Communion in the chapel at 5:30 p.m., followed by a Lenten pot luck meal (please, no desserts) and the study beginning around 6:30 pm and ending around 7:30 p.m. For more information call Jim Harmon at 879-6783.
